Announcement: New Staff for 2010-2011

The Lord has blessed Lakeside Christian School with continued growth. We are expecting to grow more in the years ahead, so we are adding staff now to prepare to meet the needs of a larger population of students. We are pleased to announce the following additions to our staff:

Secondary Principal- Mr. Philip Jones.

Mr. Jones has been teaching middle and high school math in Georgia public schools for the past 10 years. He earned his Bachelors in Math Education at Bryan College and his Masters in Educational Leadership from the University of Tennessee. He has logged over 500 hours in leadership projects with his school district and has won numerous awards as an outstanding educator. Mr. Jones played college basketball and has coached for 10 years. He will also be involved with coaching our middle school boys basketball team.

Middle School English Teacher- Miss Dani Abbidusky.

Miss Abbidusky (she will be Mrs. Duffy by August) will join the current secondary Language Arts team to teach grades 6 & 7. She has been teaching at a private Christian school near Philadelphia. She will also coach the girls Varsity Basketball team.

Middle & High School Math Teacher- Mrs. Amy Hoag

Mrs. Hoag will teach a variety of math classes between middle and high school. She is a recent graduate of Clearwater Christian College with a degree in Math Education.

Middle School Social Studies Teacher- Mr. Ryan Helms

Mr. Helms has already begun teaching at Lakeside on a part-time basis. He earned his Social Studies Education degree from Clearwater Christian College two years ago and has been teaching at a private Christian school in Ft. Myers. Mr. Helms has also joined our coaching staff for football.
